INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM
AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR LIBERATION
MUNICH OFFICE

TO: Security Officer
FROM: Assistant to Director of Emigre Relations
SUBJECT: Information on Alexander Alexandrovich Makash
REF:

DATE: September
DISTRIBUTION:

AMCONFIDENTIAL

Alexander Alexandrovich Makash, Russian, 37 years old, well dressed, gives a New York address, allegedly works for United Nations, passing through Munich on his way to Egypt. Allegedly lived in the USSR until 1943 when he went to Vienna and studied at the Music Conservatory. 1953 to Munich and later to United States.

He called Mr. Karov by telephone saying that he had read several of Karov's articles and would like to talk to him. He visited Karov for approximately two hours. Makash said that he spoke four languages including French and English. Karov, who speaks French fluently and some English tested him in both and learned that he could not speak French. Makash asked many questions about life in Munich, etc. Many factors made him suspicious to Karov.

"Tadeusz Boguski was a close friend, brother of Kosakewitz who lives in [redacted] address [redacted] Hamburg, Germany, who lives in [redacted] (Worms), Hesse-Rhineland. He always on the move through West Germany distributing Communist literature. In DP Camp Malmshain, Kreis Loebeburg, Magowatz arranged a meeting at which Kosakewitz made a report on a conference organized in the USSR zone. Before those present both Magowatz and Kosakewitz prayed to God with tears in their eyes. After the meeting they went to Boguski's room where Kosakewitz passed the night."

Next day Cheery asked Rogowski why he so ardently prayed at the Gospel meetings. <sup>While</sup> he always told him that he was an atheist. Besides this, he surely sent all the <sup>meeting</sup> addresses to the Committee in East Berlin? Rogowski answered: "You don't know our tricks; who now can say that I am a Communist who sent their addresses to Berlin?"

Czebyr says that this is only one little example of the Bolshevik agents' work. They look like spirits and perform devilish work.

The police took Ochs's passport away and sent it to the embassy. He doesn't know where it is.

In his second letter dated September 12, 1933, Grotz writes about an organization in Korntal, of which he sends Mr. Starnitz a fragment of its envelope. On the top of the envelope is the following stamp: "Bibelheim und Bibelschule, Heilbrunn, Württ., Bahnhofstrasse 15". The envelope is addressed to: "Hochschule zur Ausbildung des Evangelisten, Korntal bei Stuttgart, Poststr. 4". The address appears to be: "Hochschule, Poststr. 15, Leonberg".

Stewart to "watch over this organization" (in the envelope) which correspond with East Germany.

In his third letter dated September 13, 1943, Czeby gives the following names and addresses :

1. "Missionsbund zur Ausbreitung des Evangeliums"
Herrn Dick
Kornthal bei Stuttgart
S-a-l-t-z-b-u-r-g
2. "Ukraina - Haus"
Herrn Tadeusz Bogdanowski
Stuttgart, Ballstrasse
57 Lagerhaus
3. Herrn
Fr. Kocakowski
Leimbach, Markt
Pommern
(He travels about in the German-occupied areas).
4. "L.M.C.A."
Herrn
Tadeusz Bogdanowski
Helmholtzstr. 10
Kreis Leimbach

Czeby stresses that the above named men are close friends. It is possible that they have other friends, but for the present Czeby only knows about these four men. He adds that Mr. Dick corresponds with East Germany.
